Minnesota Amateur Baseball Hall of Fame Nomination Form

Individuals are selected to the Hall of Fame not only because they were outstanding players during their personal careers. They are chosen for dedication and love of the game and what they have done for amateur baseball in their communities during and after their personal playing careers.

Community participation and good citizenship are important.

Complete information is necessary for consideration. Deadline for nomination is June 1st. All nominations are kept on file but nominees not selected must be re-nominated annually.

Requirements:

1. Nomination form
2. Biography (one to two pages – include baseball history, volunteerism, etc.)
3. Supporting documentation (letters of recommendation, newspaper clippings)
4. Submit a .pdf document to:

John George, Secretary
 Minnesota Amateur Baseball Hall of Fame
 PO Box 7705, St. Cloud, MN 56302
